REPORT 3 – SECOND MONTH AND CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS

December 1st was my happiest day in Singapore, my wife and my 5 months son came to visit me to Singapore, they were going to stay here until Chinese New Year, during the first month I missed them a lot and now was time to enjoy with them and to do some sightseeing together around the city.

We were lucky that my landlord agreed to let my family stay in her apartment, I had the opportunity to change from my small room to the master bedroom and accommodate all them, my landlord it is a great person and if in the future some MBAs wants to rent an apartment for the exchange in Nanyang I can give the contact and she will be really happy to have you in her home.

Anyway, December was a happy month but at the same time stressful because the midterms were coming but at the same time I wanted to take care of my family and do sightseeing with them. I think I could schedule myself pretty well and combine the study time when my wife and kid were sleeping with my enjoying time when they were awake.

We had the opportunity to visit Marina Sands, Sentosa Island, Raffles Place, Orchard Road and a lot other interesting places that you must see. Here are some pictures of the visits.

Finally, on December 18th the day after I finish my midterm we decided to flight to Spain to meet my family and stay the 3 weeks recess over there for Christmas.
