ACADEMIC YEAR

- Autumn semester: mid-August to mid-December
- Spring semester: early January to mid-June

A mandatory Welcome Week for new exchange students is held at the start of each semester. Both semesters include extended examination periods, so students may finish earlier depending on their course selection.

BERGEN AND NORWAY

NHH is located in beautiful Bergen, Norway's second-largest city. Surrounded by mountains, Bergen is often called the gateway to the fjords. In winter, the nearest ski resort is only an hour away.

- International students often choose to study in Norway for several reasons:
- Stunning natural scenery and abundant opportunities for outdoor activities
- High-quality education, featuring innovative teaching methods and close, informal relationships between students and lecturers
- Norwegian lifestyle, which emphasizes a healthy work-life balance and gives students time to join student associations, clubs, or pursue other activities.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS HOUSING

NHH welcomes around 500–600 international exchange, Double Degree, and CEMS students each year. Students can choose to spend either a single semester or a full academic year at NHH.

International students are guaranteed accommodation through Sammen, the Student Welfare Organization in Bergen. Several housing options are conveniently located near NHH. Most rooms are furnished, and rental costs are very reasonable.

COURSES

NHH offers English courses in Finance, Accounting, Business Analytics, Business Analysis and Performance Management, Economics, Marketing and Brand Management, Energy, Natural Resources and the Environment, Strategy and Management.
