1. INTRODUCTION TO SYSU

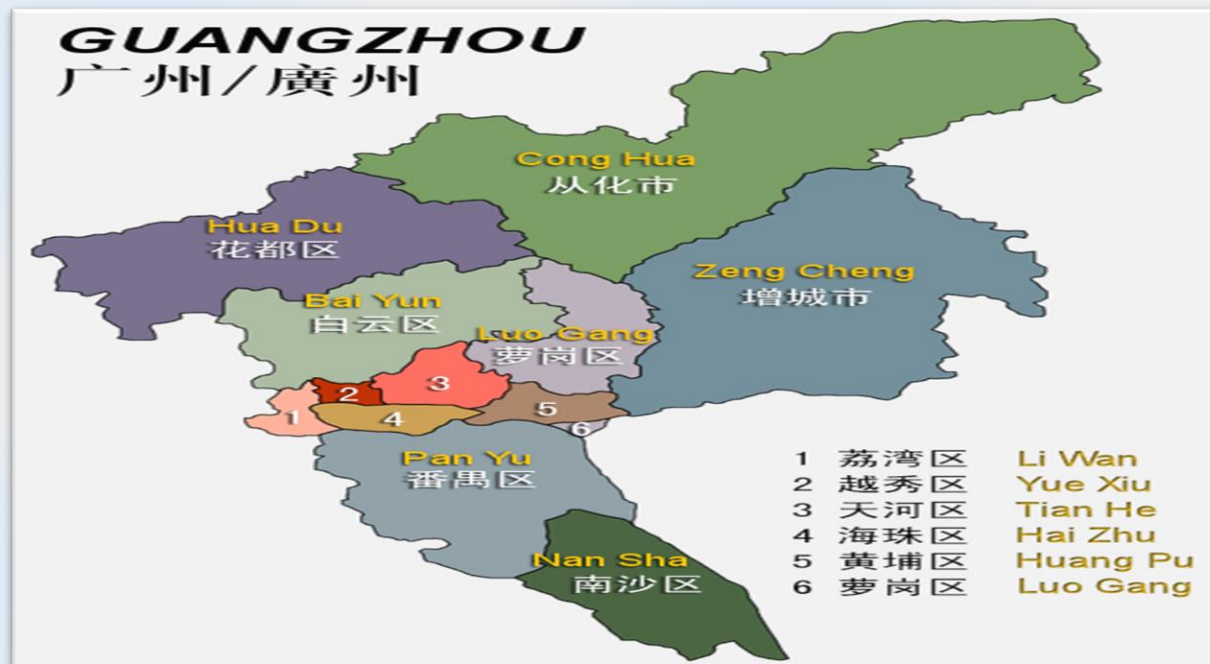

Sun Yat-sen University, founded by Dr. Sun Yat-sen, has an educational tradition spanning over 100 years, is a preeminent research, academic and cultural center and the premier location for talent development in South China.

The School of Business, Sun Yat-sen University (SYSU) is one of the oldest and most prestigious business schools in China with a rich history. Established in 1985, SYSU is dedicated to sharing knowledge and best practices that accelerate innovation in business education. Located in Guangdong, Hongkong, Macao Greater Bay Area, SYSU actively engages in the region's development by constantly contributing to the region's social advancement and economic growth. SYSU keeps holding ourselves accountable for improving business practice through a commitment to strategic management, learner success, and impactful thought leadership.

The School has risen to become a top business school in China, one of the first to be awarded triple accreditations (AMBA in 2010, EQUIS in 2011, and AACSB in 2013). Since its establishment, the School has always maintained its strength in Business Administration, which was selected into the list of "Double-First Class" for Discipline Construction by the Ministry of Education in 2017, tied for first (A+) in the fourth and fifth rounds of national discipline evaluation, and ranked No.1 in the Best Disciplines of China by Shanghai Ranking in 2019, 2020 and 2021. In the first Times Higher Education China Subject Ratings in 2020, Business Administration, Management Science, and Engineering in our school won the "A+" ratings.

2. LOCATION

The school of business is situated in Guangzhou city, with two campuses, Guangzhou East Campus (Pan Yu District, Guangzhou) and Guangzhou South campus (Hai Zhu District, Guangzhou).

Guangzhou is located in southern China in the middle of Guangdong Province, north of the Pearl River Delta, with a population of over 10 million. The city also lies close to the South China Sea, Hong Kong, and Macau. Because of its convenient geographical position, Guangzhou has been called "China's Southern Gateway". As the capital of Guangdong Province, Guangzhou is the center of its politics, economy, science, education. The city with long summer and no winter is always green with flowers in bloom all the year round, hence reputed as "Flower City". Sui (Ears of Rice) is short for Guangzhou and the City of Ram (Yang Cheng) is also an alias of Guangzhou. The Kapok is the city flower and the kapok tree is the city tree of Guangzhou.

Guangzhou's industry covers machinery, shipbuilding, textiles, sugar-refinery, household electrical appliances, computers, and petrochemicals, light industrial products for daily use, rubber products and garments. It is South China's biggest national-and-foreign-oriented city with flourishing commerce, and China's chief foreign trade center as well.

Guangzhou is historically both the start of the Maritime Silk Road and the center of Lingnan Culture. It is also the cradle of the Chinese modern revolution and the foreland of China's reform and opening to the outside world. Guangzhou has been a renowned commercial center since ancient times and is now the economic hub of southern China. Chinese Import and Export Commodities Fair (Canton Fair) is widely regarded as being "The No.1 Exhibition in China" and remains a magnet for foreign investors.

An ancient but dynamic city, Guangzhou impresses visitors with both its vivid modern ambiance and unique traditional Lingnan indigenous culture. Reflecting the unique charm of a multicultural metropolis, the city's cultural influences can be seen in all aspects of its social life. Specific examples include diet, lifestyle, architecture, commerce, language, music, art, and customs.
