We almost won that game, France had an amazing second half

We're still gonna eat something good though, and it's still on me. We can also have some drinks!

When will you be in Taiwan

Yes, yesterday for everyone it's a bad day in France. We don't make a good first half but the end of the second and the end of the match is insane. When we lost at the penalty everyone don't believe we lost ... Today I don't like Argentine people 😂

Thank you so much :) I take my flight tomorrow. I think I'm here around the 9 February

You're coming at the weather in between hot and cold. February is still quite cold but it'll start getting hot at April.

I'm not sure if they're like traditional French food. Taiwan's French restaurant is like those Michelin restaurants which you only go for some celebration. At least I haven't seen any French restaurants which is cheap
